

Blue Camp is a two day music workshop offered by the Blue Waters Bluegrass Festival to youth ages 20 and under, regardless of musical ability. Blue Camp culminates with an onstage showcase opportunity. Participants work with top notch, inspiring bluegrass musicians who give them something new and exciting to take away from their experience.

2018 Blue Waters 'Blue Camp'-Waiver Form

Blue Waters Bluegrass Festival Youth Camp (Blue Camp) is committed to conducting its recreation programs and activities in the safest manner possible. Blue Camp insists that all participants follow safety rules and instructions. Blue Camp does not carry medical insurance for injuries sustained by participants. Therefore, each person registering themselves or a family member for Blue Camp should review their own health insurance policy for coverage. The absence of health insurance coverage does not make Blue Camp responsible for payment of medical expenses.

Your cooperation is greatly appreciated.

Please read this form carefully and be aware that in registering your minor child/ward for participation in Blue Camp, you will be waiving and releasing all claims for injuries your child/ward might sustain arising out of these programs.

Release of Claims

As a participant in the Blue Camp, I agree to assume full risk of any injuries, including damages or loss, regardless of severity, which my child/ward may sustain as a result of participating in any and all activities connected with or associated with the camp. I agree to waive and relinquish all claims I or my child/ward may have as a result of participating in the Camp against Blue Waters Bluegrass Festival and its directors, officers, trustees, agents, servants and employees.

Permission to Secure Treatment

In the event of an emergency, I authorize Blue Waters Bluegrass Festival officials to secure treatment (from licensed hospital, physician, and/or medical personnel) necessary for my child's/ward's care and I will be responsible for payment of any and all medical services required.

I have read and understand the aforementioned program details.
